Provided that the activities are consistent with the description of (i) of the Business in the Policy Schedule and subject to disclosure to the Insurer as soon as possible of any new acquisition which represents more than 15% of the current group turnover in which event, the Insured reserves the right to accept such terms and additional premium as the Insurer may reasonably require.

Provided further that:

- i. No indemnity shall be granted in respect of claims for Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability which first happened prior to the date of such acquisition, formation or assumption of management responsibility.
- ii. Where existing insurance applies to the acquired properties, companies, firms, corporations, entities or other bodies over which the Insured exercises management responsibility, this Policy will indemnify the Insured for any difference in conditions and limits, until expiry or cessation of such existing insurance.

6.2 ADJUSTMENT OF PREMIUM

Unless otherwise stated the premium for this Policy or any renewal or replacement thereof is a flat premium and is not subject to adjustment except as provided in Condition 6.4 Cancellation herein.

However, where the premium is stated to be adjustable, the Insured will within a reasonable period after expiry of each Period of Insurance furnish such information as the Insurer may require to adjust the premium and any difference in premium shall be paid by or allowed to the Insured as the case may be.

6.5 CLAIMS CO-OPERATION

- a. In respect of Occurrences covered under this Policy, the Insurer will defend at its own cost, in the Insured's name and on the Insured's behalf, any suit against the Insured seeking Compensation even if any of the allegations of the suit are groundless, false or fraudulent, and may make such investigation and settlement of any claim or suit as is deemed expedient.

6.6 DIFFERENCE IN CONDITIONS, LIMITS, DEDUCTIBLES

If at the time of any claim arising under this Policy, which is not indemnified under any other existing policy of public and/or products liability insurance (hereinafter referred to as “Underlying Insurance”), then this Policy being broader in meaning or scope than such Underlying Insurance, will indemnify the Insured in respect to any such claim but subject always to the terms and Conditions of this Policy.

Further, in reference to the respective policy deductibles, where the amount recoverable under such other Underlying Insurance is less than would have been recoverable had that insurance been arranged on the same terms and Conditions as this Policy; the Insurer of this Policy will indemnify the Insured for any differences.

The amount of any claim, including the amount of any deductible, paid under such other Underlying Insurance will not be deemed to have been paid under this Policy for the purpose of determining the Insurer’s Limit of Liability under this Policy.

6.7 HEADINGS

Headings have been included for ease of reference and it is understood and agreed that the terms and Conditions of this Policy are not to be construed or interpreted by reference to such headings.

6.8 INSPECTION AND AUDIT

The Insurer shall be permitted, but not obligated, to inspect the Insured’s property and operations at any time. Neither the Insurer’s right to make inspections nor the making thereof nor any report thereon shall constitute an undertaking on behalf of or for the benefit of the Insured or others to determine or warrant that such property or operations are safe. The Insurer may examine and audit the Insured’s books and records at any time during the Period of Insurance and extensions thereof and within three years after the final termination of this Policy, as far as they relate to the subject matter of this insurance.

6.9 INSURED’S DUTIES

- a. In the event of an Occurrence the Insured shall promptly take at its own expense all reasonable steps to prevent Personal Injury or Property Damage or Advertising Liability arising or continuing out of such Occurrence.
- b. The Insured shall give notice in writing to the Insurer as soon reasonably practicable of every Occurrence, and shall forward to the Insurer all information relevant to such Occurrences that the Insurer may reasonably require, in particular every demand, writ, summons, proceeding, impending prosecution, inquest.
- c. The Insured shall not without the Insurer’s consent, make any admission, offer, promise or payment in connection with any Occurrence.
- d. The Insured shall use its best endeavours to preserve all property, products, appliances, plant and all other things which may assist in the investigation or defence of a claim or in the exercise of rights of subrogation and so far as may be reasonably practicable no alteration or repair shall be effected without the consent of the Insurer until the Insurer shall have had an opportunity of inspection.

6.10 NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE

The indemnity provided by this Policy shall not be prejudiced by any change in the name of the Insured in accordance with an application under legislation permitting the change in the name of the Insured.

6.11 POLICY INTERPRETATIONS

Where words other than the Insured or the Insurer have been used in this Policy to represent those legal entities, it is agreed that for the purposes of this Policy and any subsequent Endorsements, the words the Insured and the Insurer are deemed to have the same meaning as those alternative words used in this Policy.

It is further agreed that:

- a. words importing persons shall include corporations and other legal entities;
- b. references in the singular shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa;
- c. words depicting any gender include reference to all other genders;
- d. references to money shall be expressed as Australian dollars, unless otherwise stated.

6.12 PROPER LAW

Any dispute arising under this contract of insurance or concerning its formation shall be determined in accordance with the law of the Commonwealth of Australia and the States and Territories thereof, and any disputes relating thereto shall be submitted to the jurisdiction of the courts of such State and Territory.

6.13 SEVERABILITY AND CROSS LIABILITY

This Policy, including any amendment, renewal or variation or Endorsement to or of it, shall be construed as if each person, corporation, entity or other organisation entitled to claim on it, whether a party to the contract of insurance or not, had made a proposal, application or request for the Policy, or amendment, or renewal, or variation or Endorsement, in respect of their interest only. Further any information or knowledge possessed by a person, corporation, entity or other organisation entitled to claim on this Policy, whether possessed before or after the contract was entered into, shall not be imputed to any other person, corporation, entity or other organisation.

The Insurer will not seek any relief whatsoever (including cancellation of the Policy) for non-disclosure or misrepresentation or both against a person, corporation, entity or other organisation entitled to claim under this Policy unless the Insurer would have been entitled to that relief had the person claiming been the only person covered by the Policy.

Further neither the inclusion of more than one Insured under this Policy nor any act, omission, breach or default by an Insured shall in any way affect the rights of any other Insured, it being intended that this Policy should be construed as if a separate contract of insurance had been entered into by each Insured; but not so as to increase the Insurer's Limit of Liability under this Policy.

6.14 STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

The Insured shall take reasonable measures to comply with all statutory obligations and regulations imposed by any statutory or governmental authority.

6.15 SUBROGATION

In the event of payment for loss under this Policy to or on behalf of the Insured, the Insurer shall be subrogated to all the Insured's rights of recovery against all persons and organisations.

The Insurer agrees to waive all right of subrogation under this Policy against any corporation or corporations, the majority of whose capital stock is owned or controlled by the Insured, or against any corporation, firm or individual who owns or controls the majority of the capital stock of the Insured, or any corporation, firm or individual, to which or to whom protection is afforded under this Policy except if such corporation, firm or individual is protected from such loss by any other policy of indemnity or insurance, the right of subrogation is not waived to the extent and up to the amount of such other policy.

6.16 TERRORISM INSURANCE ACT

The Insurer has treated this insurance (or part of it) as an insurance Policy to which the Australian Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 (ATIA) applies.

ATIA and the supporting regulations made under the Act deem cover into certain policies and provide that the Terrorism Exclusion to which this Policy is subject shall not apply to any “eligible terrorism loss” as defined in ATIA.

Any coverage established by ATIA is only in respect of any “eligible terrorism loss” resulting from a “terrorist act” which is a “declared terrorist incident” as defined in ATIA. The Terrorism Exclusion to which this Policy is subject applies in full force and effect to any other loss and any act or event that is not a “declared terrorist incident”.

All other terms, conditions, insurance coverage and Exclusions of this Policy including applicable limits and excesses remain unchanged.

If any Insurer has reinsured this Policy with the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation, then any such Insurer will not be liable for any amounts for which they are not responsible under the terms of ATIA due to the application of a “reduction percentage” as defined in ATIA which results in a cap on the Insurer’s liability for payment for “eligible terrorism losses”.
