

National Careers Institute Advisory Board Communiqué

The National Careers Institute (NCI) Advisory Board held a meeting on Wednesday 16 February 2022.

The Advisory Board was excited to welcome three new members, Ms Michelle Ayyuce, Professor Erica Smith and Mr Corey Tutt. Biographies of all Board members can be found at National Careers Institute Advisory Board - Department of Education, Skills and Employment, Australian Government \(dese.gov.au\).

An update on some of the NCI's current projects was provided. The NCI will continue to work across government and with the sector to develop our understanding of individuals at different career stages to support future projects in the NCI.

An update was also provided on work being undertaken to develop industry relevant careers information. The Board discussed options and made suggestions on how to best communicate industry-specific research that focussed on the needs of diverse and varied users. The NCI will continue to update industry-relevant careers information on YourCareer.gov.au with accurate and authoritative information to support people in their decision making about their career journey.

The NCI Advisory Board is next scheduled to meet on 13 April 2022.

The NCI ensures people have access to authoritative and accurate careers information and support irrespective of their age or career stage.
