

Local Jobs

The Local Jobs Program brings together businesses and community organisations to connect people to training, jobs and support services, and to support businesses with their workforce needs.

Find out how the Local Jobs Program can support you and your community.

Local Jobs

If you are a community group or individual with ideas for skills and employment solutions or your business has workforce needs, the Local Jobs program can work with you to develop solutions for your region.

The program is delivered in 51 Employment Regions across Australia.

You can:

1. Get support from a locally based Job Coordinator
2. Get involved in local initiatives
3. Connect with the Local Jobs and Skills Taskforce.

About the Local Jobs Program

In each region, the Local Jobs Program includes:

An Job Coordinator who brings together businesses, employment and skills services and community organisations to connect people to training, jobs and support services.

A Local Jobs and Skills Taskforce that works together to develop local workforce solutions to help people get a job and meet employer needs.

A Local Jobs Plan, which outlines employment priorities and actions.

A Local Initiatives Fund to support small employment activities and community initiatives.

A Local Recovery Fund supporting locally driven initiatives that meet the priorities identified in the Local Jobs Plan.

A National Priority Fund supporting projects that address employment challenges or complement job creation across Australia.

Get local support

Reach out to your local Job Coordinator to find out how they can help you.

Your local Job Coordinator can:

Connect you with programs, services, funding opportunities and resources in your local area.

Provide advice to help businesses get the most out of hiring practices to attract and retain the right staff.

Work with organisations to develop workforce initiatives and solutions.

Share information and insights about the skills and workforce priorities and actions in the Local Jobs Plan.

Get involved

There are several ways you can get involved:

Get in touch with your local Job Coordinator and connect with their social media channels to find out what's happening in your area.

Participate in local careers events, workshops and expos.

Check out your Local Jobs Plan to learn about your local area's employment priorities and actions.

Be a part of the solution, by sharing your idea about a local initiative that can help people gain the right skills to get a job.
