Australian Government

Workforce Australia

TRANSITION TO WORK

Stakeholder Kit

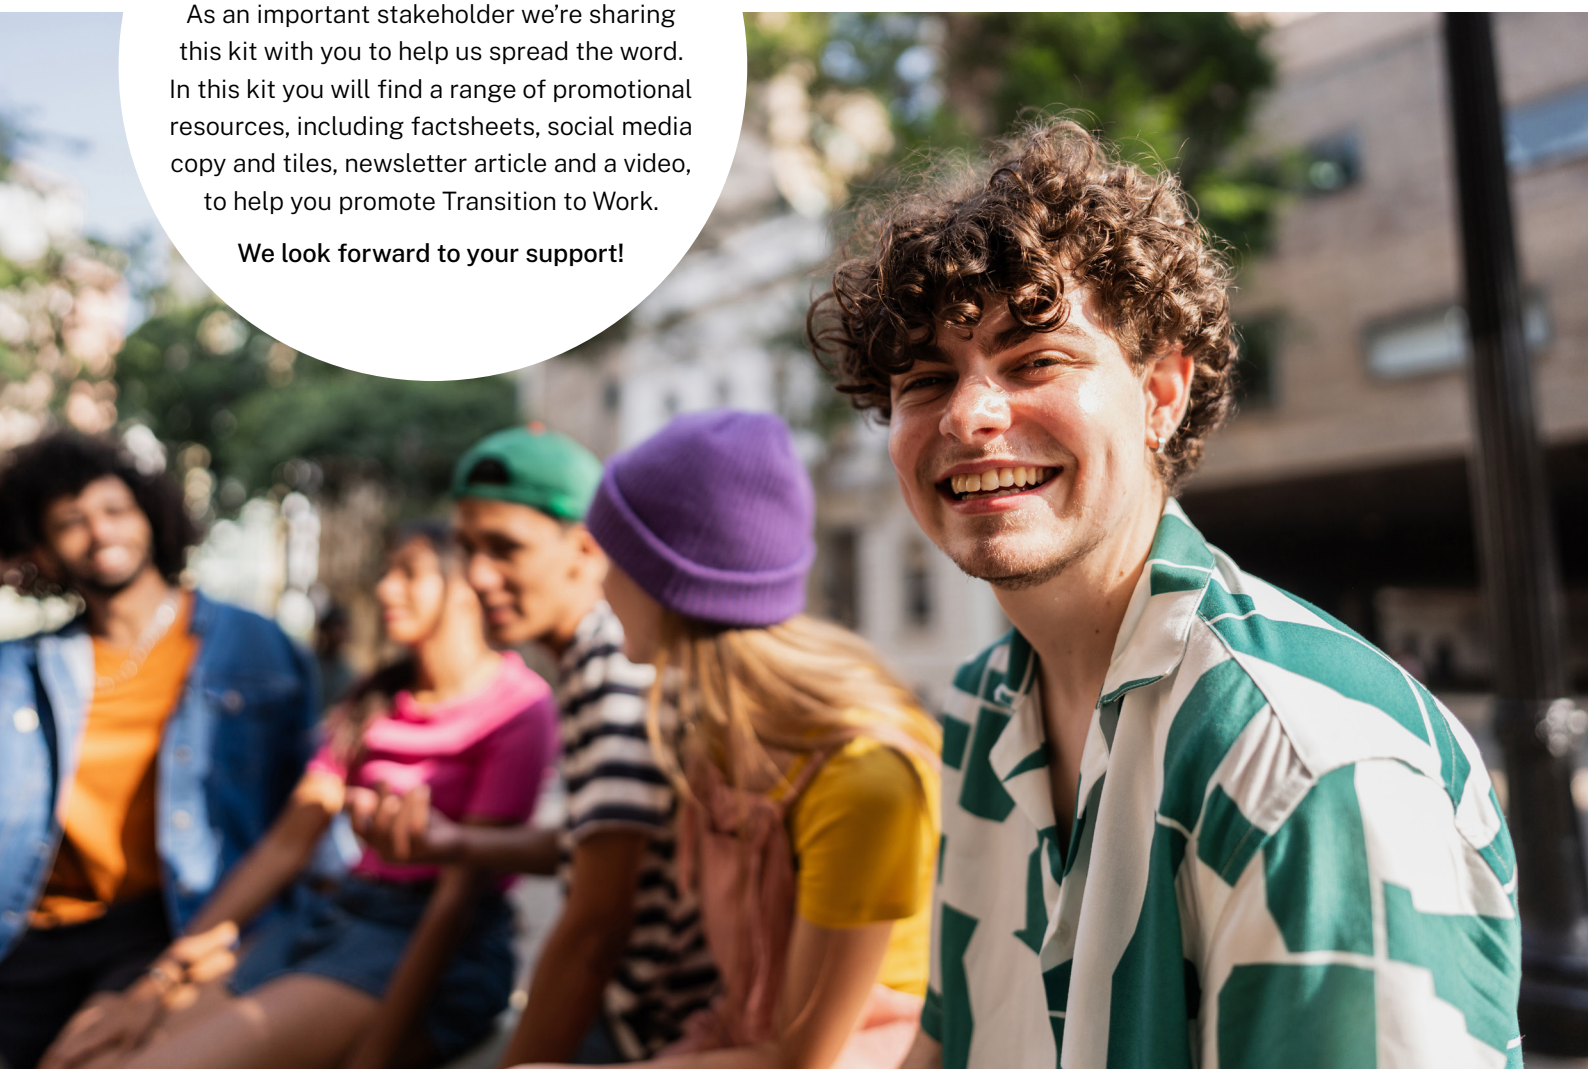

From November 2026

Transition to Work helps young people aged 15 to 24 into work (including apprenticeships and traineeships) and education. Transition to Work participants receive intensive, pre-employment support to develop practical skills to get a job, connect with education or training, find local job opportunities and connect with relevant local community services.

What you can do to help

As an important stakeholder we're sharing this kit with you to help us spread the word. In this kit you will find a range of promotional resources, including factsheets, social media copy and tiles, newsletter article and a video, to help you promote Transition to Work.

We look forward to your support!

Promotional resources

Social media

Below you can find social media tiles and accompanying text. Depending on what channel you are posting to please tag us at @AusGovDEWR

Download tile 1 here

Download tile 2 here

Post 1

Transition to Work assists young people aged 15 to 24 who want guidance and practical help to move towards work or study.

The program offers personalised support to help young people reach their goals, including:

- ✔ practical life and job skills
- ✔ career advice, education and training opportunities
- ✔ real work experience and employer connections
- ✔ ongoing support to stay in a job
- ✔ access to local support services like housing assistance or mental health support

If you're ready to plan your next step, learn more about the program or search for a provider near you visit: www.dewr.gov.au/transition-work

Post 2

Transition to Work provides young people aged 15 to 24 with free, personalised support to help build job ready skills and confidence for the next step.

From exploring strengths and gaining work experience to connecting with training or apprenticeships, the program supports informed career decisions at your own pace.

Speak to a provider to see if you're eligible visit: www.dewr.gov.au/transition-work

Promotional resources

Newsletter

Transition to Work helps participants to reach their full potential and find their passion in a supportive environment. Transition to Work is a Workforce Australia program that helps young people aged 15-24 years old into work (including apprenticeships and traineeships) or education. Transition to Work participants receive intensive, pre-employment support to develop practical skills to get a job, connect with education or training, find local job opportunities or connect with relevant local community services.

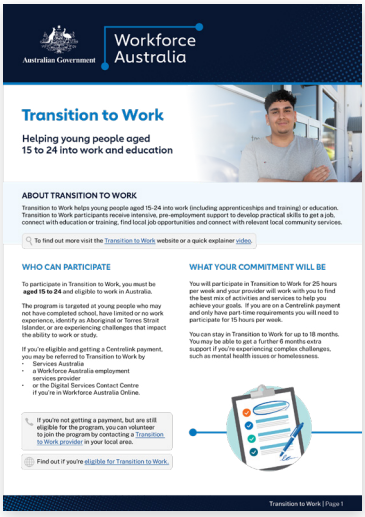

For more information on Transition to Work visit:

- ✔ Transition to Work
- ✔ Real people. Real stories. Be inspired by others and their experiences with Transition to Work.

Download banner here

Factsheets

Factsheets are available that can be shared to further promote the program.

Download factsheet 1 here

Download factsheet 2 here

Factsheet 1

The Transition to Work factsheet is a general factsheet with information about the program.

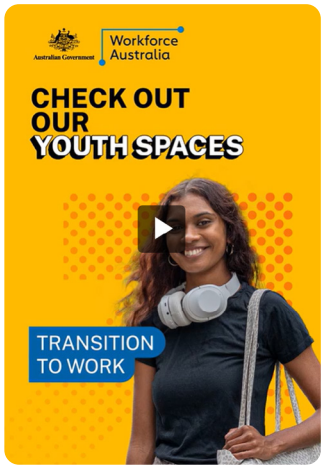

Factsheet 2

The Transition to Work Carers factsheet is specific for individuals who have caring responsibilities.

Video

Below is a video that has been developed to showcase the youth spaces that are available through the Transition to Work program that offer young people a welcoming place to focus and connect in a supportive environment.

If you would like to share the video please contact the Strategic Communication team, by emailing strategiccommunication@dewr.gov.au

Click to view the video

Promotional resources

Youth Advisory Sessions

Download tile 1 here

Download tile 2 here

Social Post 1

Are you aged 15-24 and looking for some support to help you find a job?

You can receive up to 3 one-hour FREE Youth Advisory Sessions.

Our youth consultants can help you with education, training or career advice. They can also help you with things like:

- ✔ writing or updating your resume
- ✔ preparing for job interviews
- ✔ building your skills and expertise for a job you want.

Discover more about Youth Advisory Sessions today: www.dewr.gov.au/youth-advisory-sessions

Social Post 2

If you are aged between 15 and 24 and in online or digital employment services, you may be eligible to chat to a youth consultant for free!

You can get up to 3 free 1-hour sessions with a youth consultant who can help you to improve your job search skills, resume writing, interview tips, and offer training and general career advice.

For more information visit: www.dewr.gov.au/youth-advisory-sessions

Contact

For more information on Transition to Work visit www.dewr.gov.au/transition-work

If you are after additional content to use on your communication channels, please contact the Strategic Communication team, by emailing strategiccommunication@dewr.gov.au