2024 – Enhanced Assurance Framework coming your way!

Welcome to a new year of providing skills assessments for migration purposes. We are excited to continue working closely with the sector to understand the skills assessment landscape and support you to deliver against our soon to be launched 'Best Practice Principles and Standards'. Throughout 2023 we worked hard to understand the nuances of skills assessment delivery (with special thanks to the members of our Co-Design Representative Group (CRG) for giving us a significant peak behind their curtain), and actively sought public feedback on the proposed Best Practice Principles and Standards and areas for future focus and reform. This intelligence is now being used to modernise the Guidelines for Skilled Migration Assessing Authorities and formalise an enhanced assurance framework.

Our approach to assurance uses a case management model, or 'assurance through engagement'. The Assurance team will be comprised of four assurance case managers reporting to the Assistant Director of Quality Assurance within AAPA. Each case manager will be allocated a group of assessing authorities to oversee. Once caseloads have been allocated, you will be introduced to your case manager and the proposed 'cycle of assurance' explained. We don't plan for assurance activities to be administratively burdensome for you or us – we simply want to support you to deliver the best service that you can. We hope to implement the Assurance Framework by mid-2024. A key activity over the following 12 months will be undertaking deep dive visits with all assessing authorities who were not part of the CRG. These visits provide us with a fantastic opportunity to begin to get to know your organisation and end to end processes. Where possible, we will conduct these visits in person.

2024 is shaping up to be an interesting, exciting and action-packed year. We can't wait to walk it with you.

Skills Assessment Pilots

We have recently achieved one of the last milestones for the Skills Assessment Pilots! 16 February 2024 marked the last day for Pilot 2 referrals, whilst Pilot 3 training enrolments closed on 15 February. We would like to extend a big thank you to all participating Assessing Authorities for your work in promoting, registering, and assisting eligible participants throughout the process! As at 19 February 2024, there have been over 200 completed Pilot 2 assessments, and over 100 Pilot 3 participants at the Coaching or Training Stage, 91 of whom have been enrolled into training!

It is a massive effort from everyone involved since the Pilots commenced in 2022.

We look forward to Deloitte's evaluation of all three pilots. The 6-month Participant Surveys for Pilots 2 and 3 ended last month, and Assessing Authority interviews are scheduled this month. However, if anyone has any personal learnings or ideas out of these pilots that you would like to share, please let us know! Email us at AAPA@dewr.gov.au

How tailored servicing helped Oleksiy's employment prospects

The Skills Assessment Opportunities for Migrants Pilot and Trades Recognition Australia helped Oleksiy with his employment prospects as an electrician in NSW by providing him with a free and fast-tracked skills assessment. Without the Pilot and his assessor's tailored services, his journey towards obtaining a licence would have been more expensive and might have taken longer.

Oleksiy was a highly skilled and experienced electrician in Ukraine who came to Australia on a humanitarian visa.

To help with his employment prospects in Australia, he sought to have his skills recognised under the Australian Government's Skills Assessment Opportunities for Migrants Pilot.

As part of this Pilot, Future Skills International (a subcontractor of Trades Recognition Australia) tailored their service to his needs. His assessor also went above and beyond by encouraging him to explore future employment opportunities and provided him insights into a pathway for obtaining a full electrical licence.

Oleksiy has now received a suitable skills assessment outcome letter, which he is using in his job applications. He was also awarded a provisional licence to work as an electrician in NSW.

The pilot has been helpful to me," Oleksiy said. "Thanks to this program, I was able to obtain a temporary licence, which brought me closer to obtaining a full licence."

The incentive is a great Pilot. It has been smooth and very well-tailored. Thanks to everyone who developed and organised it."

Australian Labour Market for Migrants - January 2024

The Australian Labour Market for Migrants report provides information on Australian labour market conditions. It is intended to inform people interested in working in Australia on a temporary or permanent basis, and to organisations providing services to migrants and visa applicants. The report notes that while the Australian labour market continues to perform well with a low unemployment rate, the unemployment rates for people who migrate to Australia vary appreciably (depending on skill level, English language proficiency, recent and relevant work experience and the period since arrival in Australia).

The Hot Topic provides an overview of the number of employer-sponsored temporary skilled visas granted to overseas workers to help to meet workforce needs in Australia. Analysis covers the five years 2018-19 to 2022-23.
