Workforce Australia – Transition to Work for young people aged 15-24 years

CVGT Employment is your local Workforce Australia and Transition to Work provider in the Goulburn Murray.

We are committed to helping young people aged 15-24 years to get their career journey started.

Getting to know you

- Always treating you fairly and with respect, in a culturally sensitive way
- Identifying your personal and career goals
- Providing sites with a dedicated youth space
- Aligning you with a youth employment mentor to encourage and support you on your journey.

Working toward your goal

- Negotiating a job plan with activities tailored to assist you to achieve your goals
- Providing advice and direction to upskill your education and training to prepare for work
- Mentoring you to successful outcomes in employment training.

Supporting you all the way

- Providing flexible servicing with regular appointments
- Connecting you to other support services to assist with life challenges
- Using your feedback to adjust and improve our service delivery to enhance your experience.

How we will work together

If you have a dream for your future, we can help you get there.

Together we will develop a plan, through an initial assessment and regular reviews, to allow you to find and keep a sustainable and meaningful job.

Upskilling

You can directly access services to build your skills and confidence, getting you ready for work.

Preparing for work

We match you with employers and support you to stay in employment.

Stable life

There is also support available for you to address the barriers you face away from the workplace, promoting a happy and stable personal life.

Healthy Self

We put your physical health and mental wellbeing first, making sure you feel part of your group and community.

Our partnerships

People and the communities where we live and work are at the centre of all we do.

We have established relationships and connections with local community service and training providers, industry groups, employers and government.

These allow us to stay up-to-date on where future jobs and initiatives may be, and provide the best advice on how to access these opportunities.

You can find us at Albury, Benalla, Echuca, Seymour, Shepparton, Wangaratta and Wodonga.

About us

CVGT Employment is a not-for-profit, for-purpose employment services provider.

Our purpose is to connect more people to meaningful work. We are Australian owned, and committed to helping people, business and communities thrive.
